PHYLLIS WHEATLEY CLUB.

The November meeting of the Phyllis Wheatley Club was held at the home of Mrs. Harriet Campbell, 164 Lafayette street. Quite a number of the members were present and the meeting was full of interest. Mrs. Graves read a piece on Thanksgiving. The Christmas work of the club was arranged and every member will observe the custom of preparing and sending to some deserving poor, baskets of food, clothing, etc. Under the administration of Mrs. C. S. Smith, our first president, the members and friends of the club would send all the things for the poor to the A. M. E. Sunday School Union. They would meet there a few days before Christmas and work and pack baskets, and from that place dozens of baskets, filled with food and just as many bundles of clothing, shoes, toys, dolls, brooms, etc., would be sent into the homes of the poorer people to gladden and brighten their lives. Since then the ladies have planned and arranged their baskets at their own homes. Each lady does her part to carry sunshine into the nearest needy home to her. There has not been one single Christmas since our organization, fourteen years ago, that our baskets have failed to be sent out, filled with something to gladden and to help. It was also decided at this meeting for each lady to make and to bring some article, useful or ornamental, to be sold for the benefit of the club. We are anxious to have a certain amount in our treasury by February.

At the close of the meeting we were ushered into the dining-room, where a tempting Thanksgiving repast awaited us. A vote of thanks was tendered the hostess, Mrs. Campbell. Mrs. M. S. Peyton and Mrs. Laura J. Harlan assisted the hostess.

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. S. Peyton, 62 Lewis street, Thursday, December 26, at 3 p. m. sharp.

MRS. G. L. JACKSON, President.

MEHARRY FOOTBALL SQUAD ENTERTAINED.

The Meharry football squad and a few friends were delightfully entertained last Friday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. W. Moore, 926 Seventeenth avenue, North, by their daughter, Miss Elizabeth B. Moore.

The guests began to arrive about 7 p. m., and were received by Misses Clark, Frank, French and M. Harris, of Fisk University. After a pleasant chat in the parlors with the hostess and her parents, the guests, lead by Manager Landry, entered the dining-hall, where places were prepared for twenty-two. In the room the decorations were carried out in Meharry colors. The chandeliers were twined with crimson and black streamers. In the center of the table was a large Teddy bear reined with crimson and black ribbons. On each place-card was a brown-candy Teddy bear attached with a Meharry cravat. A large Meharry pennant floated directly above. The following menu was served:

MENU.

Baked Turkey.	Escalloped Oysters.
Potatoes O'Brien.	Celery Salad.
Rolls.	Butter.
Pickles.	Olives.
English Plum Pudding.	Vanilla Sauce.
Tea.	Coffee.
	Chocolate.
	Ice-cream.

Captain Dobson acted as toastmaster and after speaking humorously, yet sadly, because of having played his last game, proceeded to introduce the speakers of the evening.

Rev. Geo. W. Moore gave the squad a hearty welcome and instructive advice. Coach Giles, of Fisk University, talked interestingly on "True Sport in College Athletics."

Dr. J. A. McMillan, of Meharry, gave a short address on "Progress in Medicine and Athletics." Mr. Phillips, on the part of the team, eloquently replied to Rev. Moore's welcome, and thanked the hostess for giving so fitting an end to the past football season.

Those present were Prof. Giles, of Fisk; Prof. McMillan, M. D., Meharry; Rev. Moore, Messrs. Moeze and Barnes, Dental '09; Manager and Coach Landry, and the football squad, composed of Captain Dobson, Messrs. Dickerson, Phillips, Harris, Petty, Davis, Johnson, Napier, Butler, Foster, McDew, Terry, Stevenson and Scott.

H. T. G. M. CLUB.

Miss A. K. Davis entertained the members of the H. T. G. M. Club, Saturday evening, December 14. The young ladies indulged in music and games of amusement, after which the president, Miss Mollie E. Berry, called a business meeting. The Assistant Secretary read the constitution and by-laws of the club for the benefit of the new members, Misses Lillian Bright and Clotelle Chappelle. Those present other than club members were Mrs. A. G. Price, Misses Grace Lucile Price, Mattie Bailey, of Dalton, Ga., and Miss Hobbs. The hostess served a delightful luncheon. The next meeting will be with Miss Willie Page, of 1303 Laurel street, Saturday evening, December 28.

CALLENDER STATION NOTES.

Rev. T. A. Hurt, pastor of First Baptist Church, preached Sunday. A good many were out, and a collection of $2.70 was raised.

The excitement caused last week by seeing a curious star, notwithstanding the rain and clouds, has grown less intense.

Rev. T. A. Hurt is reporter for The Globe in Callender, and is a hustling pastor. Several additions to the church have come under his care.

A $1.00 TAILORED GOWN.

After you have considered the lily, you are convinced that the love of the beautiful in nature and art is an inborn trait of man, which is approved of and encouraged by man's Maker.

You can content your little girl, mayhap, with ungainly garb on a broom-handle doll, but this crushes back the longing for something better that should generate loftiest ideals later.

Don't do it! Let the "little mother" have a doll that is shapely and a costume that is as tasty as you want her to be when, as the young lady, she represents your family in the social whirl of this social old world.

Go to Phillips & Buttorff Mfg. Co.'s, 217-223 Third avenue, North, and consider those dolls and outfits for prices surprisingly low.

Taste in selection is the very opposite of extravagance. When you buy tastefully you get your money's worth.

See our "Diablo" games and wonder why the world went wild over it.

Guess at the dolls in show window and win Miss Columbia for your own brood. Have a happy Xmas this year and leave the next to care for itself.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Lott, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Maddux, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Campbell, President A. L. Anderson, Mesdames R. L. Miles, E. M. Lawrence, Rachel Thornton, Janie Brown, Nannie Simms, Rosa Moore, J. W. DeWees, Misses A. L. Morton and Millie Simms. Refreshments were served as a final feature. The club will meet with Mrs. E. M. Lawrence, Thirteenth avenue, South, Monday night, December 23.

COLORED INSTITUTE.

The Colored Teachers' Institute of Davidson County met last Saturday with a good number of the teachers present. By vote of the institute the day of meeting was changed from second scholastic to second calendar Saturday in each month.

Superintendent W. C. Anderson favored the Institute with remarks touching chiefly upon the examination, which is in all the district schools of the county this week. The meeting was honored with the presence of Prof. Wm. Allen and Prof. F. M. Green, teachers in the city schools. The latter favored the institute with a lecture. He took for a subject "Impression." He said among other things, that teachers should live up to what they teach. If they teach honesty, they should be honest themselves. He further stated that this rule must be adhered to if we would make the impressions desired in the schoolroom and in life. As the teacher, so is the school; and as the school, so are the people. The fact further suggested that the work of a teacher is far-reaching, making impressions far beyond his to-day. Should the early impression upon the young minds be of an injurious nature then there is begun the existence of an evil whose end is unknown and through a relapse of time amounts to immeasurable volume. Prof. Green also referred to the fact that crime in its various forms often has its origin in evil communications and associations at the time in our lives when our minds are in their most plastic state.

MOUNT OLIVE FOR 1908.

The making up of the general report for Mount Olive Baptist Church for the past year is already well under way. The deacon board of the church will hold the last session on next Thursday night, at which time they will submit their final reports and make recommendations for the ensuing year. It can be said that no better board of officers and deacons is to be found in Nashville than those having in charge the work of Mount Olive. They have performed, to the man, their duty faithfully during the past year.

The Sunday school work of the church will undergo some changes the first week in the new year. The election of officers will be one of the changes, as the present incumbent, Mr. Jas. E. Hurt, has already announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election. It can be said of Mr. Hurt that during his period of office he has administered affairs of the Sunday school in such a way that the school has increased both in attendance and finances greater than it has since 1888, so say some of the older members of the church. Hopes are being entertained that the board in selecting his successor will find another one as capable, as ambitious and one that will have the interest of the Sunday school at heart. The moving of the Sunday school from the basement to the main auditorium, which takes place next Sunday, the 22nd, is one of the latest plans for improving the school and increasing the attendance.
